

Driving thought: God holds all power and His plan will never be thwarted.

Omnipotence: God is able to do all His holy will.

Omniscience: The doctrine that God fully knows himself and all things actual and possible.

Truths about God's Omnipotence and Omniscience:

• God knows me in _____ – Psalm 139:1-6

v.1 He completely knows my history of actions and thoughts. He knows the contents of the inner chambers of my heart and mind.

v.2 God knows my sleeping schedule.

v.3 God knows my thoughts throughout my daily schedule.

v.4 God knows my words before I say them.

v.5 God is before, behind, and all around me.

v.6 This reality is far above what I can fully comprehend.

• You can't _____ from God because He sees everything that happens and ever will happen – Psalm 139:7-9

v.7 Rhetorical question: Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? Answer: Nowhere.

v.8 Heights of the heavens or the lowest parts of the earth.

v.9 Most remote islands in the middle of the ocean.

Q: How should I respond?

1) _____: I can have assurance that once I'm found I'll never be lost.

v.10 Even there (the farthest reaches of the planet), the hand of God is there to guide me and hold me.

v.11-12 Even when darkness covers me, I can be confident that the One who guides me sees in the dark.

v.13-16 God's presence was there before I ever noticed it (even in the womb God was at work).

2) ____: Knowing I'm in rebellion to God (who knows everything I've ever done), and there's no place I can hide from Him is a terrifying thought.

“It isn't just that I don't believe in God and, naturally, hope that I'm right in my belief.

It's that I hope there is no God! I don't want there to be a God; I don't want a universe like that” – Professor Thomas Nagel, atheist Professor at New York University.

3) True _____: Knowing that I'm guilty and that God knows everything I've ever done should move me to believe in and turn to God in faith.

Key: totality/hide/Confidence/Terror/belief

Driving thought: God holds all power and His plan will never be thwarted.

Omnipotence: God is able to do all His holy will.

Omniscience: The doctrine that God fully knows himself and all things actual and possible.

Truths about God's Omnipotence and Omniscience:

- God knows me in totality – Psalm 139:1-6

v.1 He completely knows my history of actions and thoughts. He knows the contents of the inner chambers of my heart and mind.

v.2 God knows my sleeping schedule.

v.3 God knows my thoughts throughout my daily schedule.

v.4 God knows my words before I say them.

v.5 God is before, behind, and all around me.

v.6 This reality is far above what I can fully comprehend.

- You can't hide from God because He sees everything that happens and ever will happen – Psalm 139:7-9

v.7 Rhetorical question: Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? Answer: Nowhere.

v.8 Heights of the heavens or the lowest parts of the earth.

v.9 Most remote islands in the middle of the ocean.

Q: How should I respond?

1) Confidence: I can have assurance that once I'm found I'll never be lost.

v.10 Even there (the farthest reaches of the planet), the hand of God is there to guide me and hold me.

v.11-12 Even when darkness covers me, I can be confident that the One who guides me sees in the dark.

v.13-16 God's presence was there before I ever noticed it (even in the womb God was at work).

2) Terror: Knowing I'm in rebellion to God (who knows everything I've ever done), and there's no place I can hide from Him is a terrifying thought.

“It isn't just that I don't believe in God and, naturally, hope that I'm right in my belief. It's that I hope there is no God! I don't want there to be a God; I don't want a universe like that” – Professor Thomas Nagel, atheist Professor at New York University.

3) True belief: Knowing that I'm guilty and that God knows everything I've ever done should move me to believe in and turn to God in faith.